

Ardross Primary School P&C Association

Roles & Responsibilities

Our P&C & Sub-Committees

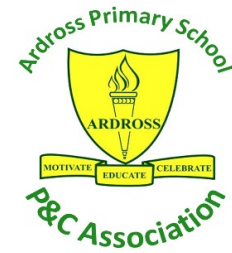

Object of the P&C

1. Generate co-operation between parents, teachers, students and members of the general community
2. Assist in the provision of resources, facilities and amenities for the school
3. Foster community interest in educational matters

Source: School Education Act 1999, s 143 (1)

Role of the Principal

- Ex officio member of the Executive Committee
- Same rights and responsibilities as any other Executive member

Principal can	Principal can not
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Propose motions• Vote• Be elected to a sub-committee	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Overrule a decision made by the P&C Unless that decision attempts to exercise authority over the day to day management of the school

The Principal is the site manager of the school and as such provides final approval for all activities held on school property